"Racial Justice and Police Practices in Illinois"

Thursday ♦ April 12, 2018

5:30PM Cash Bar | 6PM Dinner | 7PM Speaker | Drawing

Keynote Speaker: Edwin Yohnka - Director of Communications and Public Policy at the ACLU of Illinois

Ed Yohnka began his job at the ACLU of Illinois in June 1999. He serves as a primary spokesperson for the civil rights advocacy organization. He appears regularly on television and radio programs in Illinois and throughout the nation. Yohnka also is widely cited in newspapers and publications on legal and legislative matters related to the ACLU of Illinois' priorities.

From 1987 until 1999, Mr. Yohnka served on the staff of the American Bar Association, spending most of that time as a Special Presidential Assistant in the ABA's Office of the President.

Racial justice and police practices is one of six key issues for the ACLU of Illinois in 2018.
